

Story of the month

Well, who says a puppy is not big enough to protect your home!
It seems this little guy, who is only 18 weeks of age, already knew his place in his home.

A few nights ago, a noise was heard outside and owners Ted and Doris thought it was the side gate. Ted went out to investigate it and found it open and assumed it was because of the wind, so he shut it and went inside.

Soon after, just before going to bed, Ted prepared to take Harley outside to go to the toilet and as he went out, Harley stiffened up, looked very alert and concerned. Ted shone the torch where Harley was focused and sure enough, crouched beside the hot water service was a burglar.

The burglar was apprehended and police were called to come and take him away. Had Harley not reacted to a stranger in his yard, things could have turned a whole lot worse.

So for the month of April, Harley is our little hero although for his mum and dad, I think he will always be a hero to them.

Well done champ!
